Este yacimiento minero a gran escala tiene una historia de más de 500 años de producción, y en su día fue una de las minas de cobre más productivas de la región. Con reservas de mineral históricamente probadas, estériles valiosos y un importante potencial de profundidad sin explorar, este proyecto presenta una oportunidad de grandes ingresos para los inversores mineros modernos.

Principales aspectos del proyecto

- Yacimientos históricamente probados:
  - Antiguamente era una de las minas de cobre más productivas de la región.
  - Cantidad de mineral restante estimada en unas 870.000 toneladas, con un valor de mercado calculado superior a 350 millones de euros.
